

People often expect writing a will to be complicated or expensive. In fact, it's usually simple and affordable.

If you'd like to leave a gift in your will to the National Osteoporosis Society, you may like to take these suggested legacy clauses with you when visiting a solicitor.

The National Osteoporosis Society is the only UK-wide charity dedicated to improving the diagnosis, prevention and treatment of osteoporosis and fragility fractures.

For more information on how to leave a gift to us in your will, please get in touch.

A legacy for better bones

1. Residuary legacy

A share of your estate

I give ___% of the residue of my real and personal estate which I can dispose of by will in any manner I think proper, to the National Osteoporosis Society (Registered Charity number 1102712 in England and Wales and SC039755 in Scotland) of Camerton, Bath BA2 0PJ to be applied to the general purposes of the said charity. The receipt of the Treasurer or the other proper officer for the time being of the said charity shall be complete discharge to my Executors.

2. Pecuniary legacy

A fixed amount

I give the sum of £_____ to the National Osteoporosis Society (Registered Charity number 1102712 in England and Wales and SC039755 in Scotland) of Camerton, Bath BA2 0PJ to be applied to the general purposes of the said charity. The receipt of the Treasurer or the other proper officer for the time being of the said charity shall be complete discharge to my Executors.

3. Specific legacy

A particular item

I give (description of item to be given) to the National Osteoporosis Society (Registered Charity number 1102712 in England and Wales and SC039755 in Scotland) of Camerton, Bath BA2 0PJ to be applied to the general purposes of the said charity. The receipt of the Treasurer or the other proper officer for the time being of the said charity shall be complete discharge to my Executors.
